REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Circular No. D. 779-86, dated 6th February 1909.

With reference to this office No. 251-58, dated 22nd December 1908, re the collection of Railway Statistics of both imports and exports of food grains for the last three months of 1907 and 1908, the undersigned observes that from a large number of taluks, the information has not been received at all and that in the few cases where received, the statements do not furnish the information called for. With a view to collect statistics in a uniform shape, a form is prescribed and sent with this circular. It is requested that the Amildars may be instructed to depute a clerk to fill up the forms after collecting the required information from the several Railway Stations without asking the Station Masters to furnish the statement and submit them to this office direct at an early date.

A. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR,
Revenue Commissioner.

MYSORE DISTRICT.

Notification dated 27th January 1909.

It is hereby notified that, in satisfaction of arrears of land revenue due by Lakshmidevamma, wife of Ramaswamaiya and others of Jodi Guddenahalli village, revenue defaulters, the undermentioned immovable property will be sold by public auction at the village of Jodi Guddenahalli in the Taluk of Hunsur in the Mysore District on 8th April 1909. The sale will be conducted by the Sub-Division Officer, Mysore. The sale will commence at 11 A.M., and the property will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. The amount of revenue payable by the purchaser on the property for the whole (or remainder, as the case may be) of the year is Rs. 225-12-7, as shown in detail in the statement at foot.

3. Purchasers will be required to deposit twenty-five per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the date of the sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the property shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulters or any person acting on their behalf, or claiming an interest in the property, tender the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before the property is knocked down.

6. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner or by some other officer duly authorized to confirm the same.

7. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner, be placed in immediate possession, and the property will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale, signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner, will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description or in estimated extent.

8. Provided, parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Deputy Commissioner within thirty days from the day of sale, and also to appeal to higher authorities against his order within the time prescribed by law, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
